

EU-U.S. and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Arbitrator

Laura Clark Fey
Fey LLC

Current Employer-Title Fey LLC Attorneys at Law-Privacy & Information Governance Solutions, Principal

Profession A lawyer with 25 years of experience, specializing in global data privacy and corporate information governance (CIPP/E, CIPP/US, CIPM, FIP).

Work History Principal, Fey LLC Attorneys at Law, 2014 - Present; Partner, Daley & Fey (formerly Daley Crowley), 2009 - 2014; Associate-Equity Partner/Litigation and Trial Attorney, Shook, Hardy & Bacon, 1996 - 2009; Associate, Polsinelli, White, Vardeman & Shalton, 1995 - 1996; Trial Attorney, U.S. Department of Justice, Honor's Program, 1992 - 1995.

Experience & Expertise in U.S. Privacy Law and EU Data Protection Law Laura, a Certified Information Privacy Professional for Europe and the U.S. and a Certified Information Privacy Manager, leads a boutique data privacy and information governance law firm. The International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP) selected Laura as a member of its inaugural class of Fellows of Information Privacy (FIP).

For many years, Laura has utilized her deep privacy and cybersecurity expertise to help U.S. and multinational corporations develop and implement practical, legally compliant solutions to their unique global data privacy and cybersecurity challenges. She has helped corporate clients in a wide variety of industries implement people, process and technology solutions designed to assist them in meeting a host of privacy and security obligations. Over the years, Laura has counseled corporate clients on a wide variety of EU data protection issues. She has provided clients with comprehensive data breach response assistance. Laura also has provided guidance to individuals seeking to exercise their data subject rights and to resolve disputes relating to the handling of their personal data.

Experience & Training in Alternative Dispute Resolution Laura is a former litigator and trial attorney with significant experience resolving high stakes matters. Her excellent questioning and listening skills enable Laura to understand the perspectives of all parties to a dispute, and to develop the facts needed to resolve disputes. Laura's clients have even retained her to resolve complex, high stakes matters being litigated by other law firms and to bring together employees with diverse and sometimes conflicting perspectives to develop creative, effective solutions to complex privacy and cybersecurity challenges.
