As described respectively in Annex I of the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (“EU-U.S. DPF”) Principles, the Letter from the U.S. Department of Commerce’s International Trade Administration (“ITA”) regarding the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF, and Annex I of the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (“Swiss-U.S. DPF”) Principles, an EU/EEA, UK (or Gibraltar), or Swiss individual has the option to invoke binding arbitration to determine whether a participating organization has violated its obligations under the DPF Principles as to that individual and whether any such violation remains fully or partially unremedied (“residual claims”).

The International Centre for Dispute Resolution® (“ICDR®”) is the international division of the American Arbitration Association® (“AAA®”) and the administrator for the EU-U.S. DPF Annex I Binding Arbitration Program and the Swiss-U.S. DPF Annex I Binding Arbitration Program. The ICDR-AAA provides arbitrators to parties on cases administered by the ICDR-AAA under the ICDR-AAA® EU-U.S. DPF Annex I Arbitration Rules and the ICDR-AAA® Swiss-U.S. DPF Annex I Arbitration Rules.

All information contained in this resume has been provided directly by the arbitrator in connection with potential selection for arbitrations brought pursuant to Annex I of the DPF Principles. Unless specified otherwise in their biographical information, arbitrators on the ICDR-AAA® EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Arbitrators roster or the ICDR-AAA® Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Arbitrators roster are not members of any other ICDR-AAA® roster of arbitrators.

Government (KSG)/Senior Research Associate, Center for Business and Government (CBG), KSG/Adjunct Lecturer in Public Policy, Kennedy School of Government, 1997 – 2002; Principal Administrator (1993 – 1996) and Administrator (1988 – 1993), Directorate for Science, Technology and Industry (DSTI), Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), 1988 – 1996.

Consultant, Advanced Science and Technology Policy (including personal data protection and privacy, human rights, and cybersecurity), 1996 – Present; Consultant, Civil Society Governance and Operations, 1996 – Present; Senior ICT Expert, Infrastructure Advisory Panel, Pacific Region Infrastructure Facility (Sydney, Australia), 2015 – 2019; Attorney, Hinckley, Allen & Snyder, 1983 – 1988.

Experience & Expertise in U.S. Privacy Law and EU Data Protection Law, and, As Appropriate, Any Other European Data Protection Law

For nine years, I have taught protection of personal data and privacy law, including US federal and state laws, the GDPR, the Data Protection Directive (DPD), national laws in European nations, as well as other countries' laws. For over 8 years, I served in the OECD Secretariat, where I was responsible for all matters related to the OECD Guidelines for the Protection of Privacy and Transborder Flows of Personal Data and consultations with governments on protection of personal data and privacy. I organized annual meetings on protection of personal data and privacy, including reviews of the OECD Guidelines for the Protection of Privacy and Transborder Flows of Personal Data, privacy enhancing technologies, protection of health data, and rulemaking related to privacy, such as legislation and its implementation and enforcement at regional, national and sub-national levels, private sector codes of conduct, and standards. Due to my experience and expertise, I have been a frequent speaker on the topic at many national and international events, including the Global Privacy Forum and the Asia Pacific Privacy Authorities (APPA). I was a Founding Member of the International Advisory Board of Privacy International, London, United Kingdom.

Experience & Training in Alternative Dispute Resolution

Extensive experience in international diplomacy and multilateral negotiation of international accord in new advanced technologies.

Professional Licenses

Admitted to the Bar: Rhode Island (1983).

Professional Associations

Member of Advisory Board (1996 – present) and Chair (2006 – 2015), Secretary (2004 – 06) and Member (2000 – 2015) of Board of Directors (Founding Member), Electronic Privacy Information Center (EPIC), Washington DC.
