Where Advocacy Meets Business

“Gretta Walters is one of the most promising young professionals that I have worked with at the firm and brings a fantastic point of view to each case.” -Legal 500 USA

Gretta’s experience as arbitrator and counsel spans a diverse range of commercial and investment disputes in domestic and international arbitration and state and federal courts. These include arbitrations arising under the ICC, ICDR, AAA, SIAC, LCIA, SCC, BCICAC, SMA and UNCITRAL Rules. Her cases have included disputes concerning construction/infrastructure projects; energy projects such as oil & gas, wind, solar, coal-fired, and hydroelectric projects; licensing and distribution agreements; the telecommunications sector; aerospace technology; shipping; the automotive industry; tax issues; investment agreements; banking and finance; mergers & acquisitions; lending agreements in developed and emerging markets; securities laws; manufacturing and sales contracts; employment disputes; executive compensation agreements; medical and pharmaceutical claims; and healthcare management agreements. These matters have included legal questions arising under the laws of Brazil, British Columbia, the British Virgin Islands, the Cayman Islands, France, Germany, Haiti, Mexico, the Netherlands, Serbia, Singapore, Spain, Sweden, and numerous United States jurisdictions, such as those of California, Florida, New York, Pennsylvania, Texas, Utah, and Washington, DC.

Gretta has also sat in more than 20 arbitrations—as chairperson, sole arbitrator, co-arbitrator and emergency arbitrator—under the ICC, ICDR, SIAC, and AAA Rules.

Experience

Prior to joining Chaffetz Lindsey, Gretta was an Associate at Mayer Brown, Legal Counsel at the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, and a Visiting Lecturer at Stockholm University.
