

JESSICA ROTHMAN

CORPORATE COUNSEL,

TURNER CONSTRUCTION COMPANY

Turner

Jessica L. Rothman is an accomplished Construction Attorney with 20+ years of experience representing owners, contractors and design professionals in a range of performance and payment disputes including breach of contract, mechanic's lien, negligence and building defect claims. Her experience includes drafting and negotiating contracts, providing general counsel services, risk management and dispute resolution counsel, including litigation and arbitration, for effective resolution of conflicts at hand.

Jessica is skilled in negotiating the critical risk, performance and payment terms under those agreements, and managing the implementation and practical effects of the critical terms over the course of a construction project.

