

Neha Munjral
General Counsel
GE Healthcare & Wipro GE Healthcare
India and South Asia

Neha Munjral is currently General Counsel for GE Healthcare & Wipro GE Healthcare for India and South Asia. In this capacity she manages a cross functional and direct team that covers legal, compliance and secretarial functions in addition to working with a trusted panel of law firms and lawyers across the region. She is on the leadership team of the CEO & MD and plays a direct role in shaping the strategy of GE Healthcare's South Asia INR 4500 crores business which includes commercial operations, manufacturing, R&D and digital initiatives.

Neha has a total experience of over 12 years having worked both with leading law firms and corporates. She started her career at the projects and infrastructure practice at Luthra & Luthra Law offices where she focused on the PPP framework, power, education and road projects with clients in government, financial institutions and private equity players. She then went on to work for a few years at Religare Finvest Limited where she advised on structured finance, retail lending and digital lending initiatives before joining GE in 2017. In GE from 2017-2020 she supported GE's gas and steam businesses. Most recently she was the General Counsel for GE Power in the region where in addition to her role as a business lawyer she also lead and managed the Board and corporate governance for GE Power India Limited.

Neha holds a Bachelor's in Arts and Law Degree from the National Law School of India University, Bangalore and a Masters in Law degree from the New University School of Law, NY. She is licensed to practice law in India and New York. In her free time, she enjoys reading fiction, keeping fit and playing board games with her husband Raideep and son Rivansh.