

Swiss-U.S. DPF Arbitrator

Paul Lanois
Fieldfisher

Current Employer-Title Fieldfisher – Director

Profession Paul is a global privacy, data protection and cybersecurity lawyer with extensive experience internationally, both as in-house lawyer and outside counsel.

Work History Director, Fieldfisher (USA), 2018 - Present; Vice President and Senior Legal Counsel, Credit Suisse (Switzerland and Hong Kong), 2014 - 2018; Associate, Linklaters (Luxembourg), 2013 - 2014; Associate, Allen & Overy (Luxembourg), 2011 - 2013; Associate Professor, University of Cergy-Pontoise Law School (France), 2009 - 2011; U.S. Associate, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett (United Kingdom), 2007 - 2009.

Experience & Expertise in U.S. Privacy Law and Swiss Data Protection Law, and, As Appropriate, Any Other European Data Protection Law Paul has extensive experience advising on privacy, data protection and cybersecurity laws from an international perspective, having lived and worked in the United Kingdom, Luxembourg, Switzerland, France, Hong Kong and the United States. He has assisted numerous companies in certifying to the Privacy Shield Framework and the Data Privacy Framework. Paul also provides extensive advice on global information programs, including conducting data privacy assessments and audits. He is frequently invited to speak on privacy and data protection at conferences across Europe, Asia and the United States. He was named a "Cybersecurity & Data Privacy Trailblazer" by the National Law Journal and an "Innovative Corporate Counsel" by Law 360. He was also a recipient of the Association of Corporate Counsel's "Top 10 30-Somethings" award. He is recognized as a Fellow of Information Privacy (FIP) by the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP) and is a Certified Information Privacy Professional, covering Asian law (CIPP/A), US law (CIPP/US), European law (CIPP/E) and Canadian law (CIPP/C). He is also a Certified Information Privacy Manager (CIPM) and a Certified Information Privacy Technologist (CIPT). In addition, he holds the Certificate of Cloud Security Knowledge (CCSK), is a Systems Security Certified Practitioner (SSCP) as well as a Payment Card Industry Professional (PCIP).

Experience & Training in Alternative Dispute Resolution Paul has represented clients throughout the world before regulatory agencies and in proceedings in relation to matters arising out of privacy and data security claims asserted by regulators, consumers, employees, business partners and other parties.

Paul Lanois

As described in Annex I of the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework ("Swiss-U.S. DPF") Principles, a Swiss individual has the option to invoke binding arbitration to determine whether a participating organization has violated its obligations under the Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles as to that individual and whether any such violation remains fully or partially unremedied ("residual claims").

The International Centre for Dispute Resolution® ("ICDR®") is the international division of the American Arbitration Association® ("AAA®") and the administrator for the Swiss-U.S. DPF Annex I Binding Arbitration Program. The ICDR-AAA provides arbitrators to parties on cases administered by the ICDR-AAA under the ICDR-AAA® Swiss-U.S. DPF Annex I Arbitration Rules.

All information contained in this resume has been provided directly by the arbitrator in connection with potential selection for arbitrations brought pursuant to Annex I of the Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles. Unless specified otherwise in their biographical information, arbitrators on the ICDR-AAA® Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Arbitrators roster are not members of any other ICDR-AAA® roster of arbitrators.

Professional Licenses	Admitted to the Bar: California (2020); District of Columbia (2016); New York (2008); Paris, France (inactive); Luxembourg (inactive).
Professional Associations	CIPP/US Exam Development Board (IAPP); Editorial Board Member of the Journal of Data Protection and Privacy ; Vice-Chair of American Bar Association's Section of Science & Technology Law E-privacy Committee.
Education	University of Pennsylvania Law School (Master of Laws, LLM - 2007); Wharton Business School (Certificate in Business and Public Polity); University of Paris - Sorbonne (Magistère - 2006; Master - 2006; Juris Doctor - 2005).
Languages	English and French (Native Language); German (B1 Level)
Publications, Speeches & Testimony	Lead co-author of “Observations and Recommendations on Connected Vehicle Security” and “Future-proofing the Connected World: 13 Steps to Developing Secure IoT Products” published by the Cloud Security Alliance. Also contributed to “Using Blockchain Technology to Secure the Internet of Things”, “Improving Metrics in Cyber Resiliency” and “Establishing a Safe and Secure Municipal Drone Program” from the Cloud Security Alliance. Co-author of chapter “Cybersecurity and Risk” in A Handbook on Global Social Media Law for the Business Lawyer (American Bar Association, 2017) Invited to speak at international conferences, including the RSA Conference, IAPP Privacy Forum, (ISC)² Security Congress (Ireland, France, Switzerland and Hong Kong), PLI Annual Institute on Privacy and Data Security Law (USA), Ethisphere Ethics & Compliance Forum (UK), Thomson Reuters Regulatory Summit, Infosecurity Magazine conferences (UK), AIIM Conference (USA), Corporate Counsel & Compliance Exchange (UK), TRUSTe Privacy Insight (USA), Privacy & Data Protection Summit in Berlin (Germany), International Technology Law Association (USA), etc. Testified before a parliamentary commission at the French Parliament (Assemblée nationale) on the governance of large companies.

Paul Lanois

As described in Annex I of the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (“Swiss-U.S. DPF”) Principles, a Swiss individual has the option to invoke binding arbitration to determine whether a participating organization has violated its obligations under the Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles as to that individual and whether any such violation remains fully or partially unremedied (“residual claims”).

The International Centre for Dispute Resolution® (“ICDR®”) is the international division of the American Arbitration Association® (“AAA®”) and the administrator for the Swiss-U.S. DPF Annex I Binding Arbitration Program. The ICDR-AAA provides arbitrators to parties on cases administered by the ICDR-AAA under the ICDR-AAA® Swiss-U.S. DPF Annex I Arbitration Rules.

All information contained in this resume has been provided directly by the arbitrator in connection with potential selection for arbitrations brought pursuant to Annex I of the Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles. Unless specified otherwise in their biographical information, arbitrators on the ICDR-AAA® Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Arbitrators roster are not members of any other ICDR-AAA® roster of arbitrators.