

RICK ZIEGLOFSKY

REGIONAL VICE PRESIDENT |
CONSTRUCTION DIVISION (MT/MW),
AMERICAN ARBITRATION ASSOCIATION

Rick Zieglofsky is a Vice President in the Construction Division of the American Arbitration Association, with primary responsibility for the Mountain and Midwest regions. He joined the AAA in 2013 as Director of ADR Services in our Commercial Division before moving to the Construction Division in 2015. Located in Phoenix, AZ, Rick collaborates with the other construction team members to lead business development and case administration initiatives for the Construction Division. A native of Peoria, IL, Rick holds a B.A. in Journalism from Indiana University – Bloomington (1992) and a J.D. from Tulane University Law School (1997), and Rick is licensed to practice law in the State of Arizona (inactive).

Rick also serves as a committee member for the Fiesta Sports Foundation, home to the VRBO Fiesta Bowl and Rate Bowl college football games.

