

ROBERT NIDA

SHAREHOLDER / SENIOR
LITIGATION COUNSEL,
NIDA & ROMYN, P.C.

Nida & Romy, P.C.

Robert is a shareholder with Nida & Romy, P.C., a construction litigation firm located in Los Angeles, California. He is a 25-plus year construction attorney, trial lawyer and arbitration advocate, who has served as lead counsel in numerous high-profile construction disputes in mediation, arbitration and trials throughout the United States. These include large civil and building projects, including airport terminals and runways, bridges, roadways, subways and high-speed rail systems, military facilities, hospitals, commercial buildings, hotels, transit facilities, and port facilities.

Robert is an arbitrator on the AAA complex construction panel and consumer panels. Robert also manages the construction litigation portfolio for Tutor Perini Corporation and its subsidiaries, including hiring and managing local counsel and experts, acting as corporate representative in mediations and trials, reporting to management, the board and auditors.

Robert also has authored numerous professional and scholarly articles on Constitutional Law.

The George Washington University School of Law (LL.M., Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution, with highest honors); St. Mary's University School of Law (J.D); Institute of World Legal Problems, Innsbruck, Austria (Certificate); San Diego State University (B.A., Political Science and International Affairs). Licensed in California, New York, District of Columbia, Federal courts.

