

ROD TOBEN

REGIONAL VICE PRESIDENT |
CONSTRUCTION DIVISION (MW/SW),
AMERICAN ARBITRATION ASSOCIATION

Rod Toben is a Construction Division Vice President located in Dallas, TX with responsibility for marketing and developing the Association's Construction ADR Services for the Midwest and Southw est. He frequently consults with general counsel and advocates on the design and implementation of construction dispute resolution programs. In addition, he is responsible for the recruitment and development Association's Roster of Arbitrators and Mediators.

Rod also oversees the Construction and Commercial Case Management teams in the AAA's Central Case Management Center with the responsibility of delivering case management of mediations and arbitrations filed with the AAA. Rod is an AAA liaison to the National Construction Dispute Resolution Committee and works closely with industry professional groups. Rod is a frequent AAA representative at speaking engagements and educational activities.

