Michael Weatherley is a Senior Associate in Ashurst's international arbitration practice in Singapore. He specialises in international arbitration in the construction, infrastructure, energy and resources sectors.

During his time in Ashurst's Brisbane, London and Singapore offices, Michael has acted as counsel in many of the major seats of arbitration and under all of the major rules. These arbitrations have involved multi-million and multi-billion dollar claims between companies from around the world, relating to projects in Australia, Indonesia, Malaysia, India, and Thailand among others.

Legal 500 Asia Pacific ranks Michael as a "Rising Star" in international arbitration. He is "noted for his advocacy skills", and as being "tenacious", "insightful" and "one to watch for the future".
