

INTERNATIONAL CENTRE
FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION®

AMERICAN ARBITRATION
ASSOCIATION®

Steven K. Andersen, Esq.

Vice President

International Centre for Dispute Resolution®, the international division of the American Arbitration Association®

Tel: 213.271.9915

andersens@adr.org

Steve Andersen, oversees the ICDR's international dispute resolution services in North America, and also works with the ICDR® team in Asia. He is the ICDR point person with the aerospace, aviation, energy, entertainment, and technology industries. Steve directs the ICDR's mediation services and pioneered the organizations concurrent arbitration/mediation service model. Steve has organized over 25 international dispute resolution conferences in the America's, Asia, and Europe, and has significant experience presenting to groups of all size and has facilitated negotiation, mediation, and arbitration training programs for industry groups, corporate counsel, and dispute resolution professionals.

Steve has led many AAA-ICDR® rule initiatives including ICDR's International Arbitration and Mediation Rules, ICDR's International Arbitration Rules for the Independent Film and Television Academy, ICDR Tribunal Secretary Guidelines, AAA-ICDR Best Practices Guide for Maintaining Cybersecurity and Privacy, ICDR Canada Arbitration, Mediation, and Arbitrator Appointing Authority Procedures, Baseball/Final Offer Arbitration Supplementary Rules, Resolution Services Mediation, Early Neutral Evaluation, Fact-Finding, and Mini-Trial.

The U.S. State Department appointed him as a delegate member of the USMCA 31.22 (formerly NAFTA) Advisory Committee on Private Commercial Dispute Resolution, and he co-chairs its mediation subcommittee. Steve's J.D. is from the University of San Diego, School of Law and is fluent in Spanish.